PROGRAM ANNOUNCEMENT

2020 FULBRIGHT TEACHING EXCELLENCE AND ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM (TEA)

The Fulbright Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program (TEA) is a program of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) of the U.S. Department of State, and implemented by IREX, a Washington, DC-based non-profit organization. TEA will provide international secondary school teachers with unique opportunities to develop expertise in their subject areas, enhance their teaching skills, and increase their knowledge about the United States.

Four (4) grants are available for Thailand and the grant period for Fall 2020: Cohort II starts in September - October 2020. The program will provide approximately 170 fellowships to international secondary school teachers of English, English as a Foreign Language, math, science, and social studies, including special education teachers in those subjects, at a U.S. university. The six-week program will consist of academic seminars focusing on new teaching methodologies, curriculum development, lesson planning, and instructional technology training. Intensive English language instruction will be offered to teachers who need additional practice. The program will include a practicum of at least 40 hours with a U.S. partner teacher in a U.S. secondary school near the host university to actively engage participants in the U.S. classroom environment. Cultural enrichment, mentoring, and support will be provided to participants throughout the program.

ELIGIBILITY:

- Be citizens of and residents in Thailand;
- Not exceeding 50 years of age at the time of the application deadline;
- Hold a bachelor's degree from a Thai university or higher;
- Be secondary-level, full-time teachers of English, English as a Foreign Language (EFL), math, science, or social studies, including special education teachers in those subjects. Secondary-level teachers include both middle and high school teachers serving students between approximately 12 and 18 years of age. Teachers responsible for teaching additional grade levels must teach middle or high school students more than 50% of their work time in order to be eligible;
- Have at least five years of classroom experience at the time of submission;
- Continue teaching for at least five years after completion of the program; and
- Have an approval for a leave of absence from the school/institutional administration.

INELIGIBILITY:

- Educational administrators (such as representatives or officials of the Ministry of Education) and school administrators who do not teach at least 50% of their time, full-time teacher trainers, university faculty, private English Language tutors, and teachers from schools primarily serving expatriates are not eligible.
- Applicants who have in the past five to eight years traveling to the U.S. for exchange programs such as Study of the United States Institutes (SUSI) or International Visitor Leadership Program (IVLP) or to other Western countries for professional development. However, participating in online programs such as e-teacher online courses or Massive Open Online Courses (MOOCs) is not considered having extensive experience.

Application Deadline: Thursday, April 18, 2019

Only complete applications are eligible for further consideration. Only short-listed candidates will be contacted.

Please note that an official and valid ITP TOEFL score is not required at the time of application. Once selected, you will take the TOEFL ITP test organized by Fulbright Thailand.

Please note that beginning in 2019, the TEA Program will be known as the Fulbright Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program, and therefore, all program policies and participants will be subject to the regulations for teacher exchange participants established by the J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board (FFSB).

Teaching Excellence and Achievement Program (TEA) seeks to:

- Enhance teachers' expertise in their teaching discipline and equip them with a deeper understanding of best practices in teaching methodologies, lesson planning, and the use of technology in teaching.
- Create among educators a more nuanced understanding of the U.S.
- Develop productive and lasting relationships and mutual understanding between U.S. and international teachers and their students.
- Contribute to improving teaching in participating countries by preparing participants to serve as teacher leaders, who upon returning home will apply and share their experience and skills with their peers and students.

FINANCIAL PROVISIONS OF THE FELLOWSHIP:

- J-1 visa support;
- A pre-departure orientation held in Bangkok;
- Round-trip airfare to and within the U.S.;
- A Welcome Orientation in Washington, D.C.;
- Academic program fees;
- Housing (generally shared with other program fellows) and meals;
- Accident and sickness healthcare coverage (does not cover pre-existing conditions);
- Transportation to the practicum school (as needed);
- A daily allowance for meals and incidentals during the university academic program;
- A baggage allowance;
- An end-of-program workshop in Washington, D.C.; and
- The opportunity to apply for alumni small grants for alumni in good standing.

ELIGIBLE TEACHING DISCIPLINES:

- English or English as a Foreign Languages (EFL)
- Social Studies (civics, history, geography, global studies, etc.)
- Math
- Science
- Special Education in the disciplines listed above

SELECTION PROCESS AND CRITERIA:

TEA fellows will be selected through a merit-based open competition. After the application deadline, Fulbright Thailand will review all eligible applications and select top candidates to be interviewed by the Binational Selection Committee. After the interview, the selected candidates will take the TOEFL ITP Test organized by Fulbright Thailand the following day. The final selection for global nomination will be based on the top candidates' application, interview and TOEFL ITP score result. The J. William Fulbright Foreign Scholarship Board (FFSB) will make the final selection of Fulbright Teachers.

SELECTION CRITERIA (not in order of importance):

- Demonstrated commitment to teaching in the field of secondary education;
- Demonstrated leadership potential;
- Professional and educational experience and achievements;
- Potential for developing long-term linkages between U.S. and Thailand's educational institutions/schools;
- Preparedness (including maturity, flexibility, and ability to function independently) for an intensive U.S.-based training program with very limited free time for personal travel or sightseeing;
- Willingness and capacity to work and live collaboratively with international peers to foster a positive learning community for professional development;
- Articulated ideas for applying program experience to improving secondary education in Thailand;
- Ability to express ideas clearly and effectively;
- Oral and written English language skills sufficient to manage coursework, participate in specialized seminars, and deliver presentations in U.S. schools. If you are selected, a minimum score of 450 in TOEFL ITP will be required for participating in the TEA Program.
